Barbara T. Smith, A Meditation on Time

Installation & Performance: September 19 – December 31, 2009

A Meditation on Time is a performance about memory and the passing of the artist's years in Pasadena. In this performance, Smith uses the act of knitting to represent duration and nostalgia for her past. The artist begins knitting at the exhibition opening on September 19, and will knit at 14 other locations in the city throughout the duration of the show. Her knitted work from each site will be continually added to a long line which will be on display at the Armory. Below is a list of the dates and locations currently scheduled as part of this performance.
