ARMORY

Armory Center for the Arts

Armory Center for the Arts' nationally-recognized, award-winning art classes for children, teens, adults, and families are taught by professional, rigorously trained educators who are also practicing artists with advanced degrees from the nation's top art schools.

Our mission is to build on the power of art to transform lives and communities through creating, teaching, and presenting the arts.

However you define family, our multi-generational Family Classes offer an opportunity to foster creativity while making art together. Armory Children's Classes introduce materials and ideas that strengthen skills, promote problem solving, and encourage playful exploration of ideas. Teen Classes engage in ambitious investigations of contemporary art concepts, individual expression, techniques, and materials. Develop new abilities or discover hidden talents in our day and evening Adult Classes. Lifelong learners and all skill levels are welcomed.

Nonprofit and community-based, Armory Center for the Arts is the region's leading institution for contemporary art exhibitions and community arts education.

Toddlers & Families

Challenge your imaginations and make art together in our multi-generational art classes using clay and other materials. Parent/caregiver must be present to participate and engage with the student.

All materials provided. Classes meet 10 times. Visit armoryarts.org/studio for all class descriptions and policies.
