Register for Summer Session

Nonprofit and community-based, Armory Center for the Arts is the region's leader for community arts education. Our mission is to build on the power of art to transform lives and communities through creating, teaching, and presenting the arts.

However you define family, our multi-generational Family Classes offer an opportunity to foster creativity while making art together. Armory Kid's Classes introduce materials and ideas that strengthen skills, promote problem solving, and encourage playful exploration. Teen Classes engage in ambitious investigations of contemporary art concepts, materials, and individual expression. Develop new skills or discover hidden talents in our day and evening Adult Classes. Lifelong learners and all skill levels are welcome in our studio.

On the Cover: Laura Parker

Armory Teaching Artist Laura Parker's photography, animation, and installations have been shown at museums, galleries, and alternative spaces across the United States and abroad. Venues include: dnj Gallery, LA, CA; Los Angeles County Museum of Art, LA, CA; John Michael Kohler Arts Center, Sheboygan, Wisconsin; De Beyerd Center for Contemporary Art, Breda, Netherlands; PS Amsterdam, Netherlands; Kontor Projects, Copenhagen, Denmark; Richard Heller Gallery, Santa Monica, CA; Long Beach Museum of Art, Long Beach, CA and Tractionarts, LA, CA. She earned her BFA, Magna cum Laude from UCLA and her MFA from CalArts, Valencia.

“ I loved everything about Tracy Nakayama's class! I especially appreciated the opportunity to wind down from my day and do some drawing and meditation instead of focusing on producing a finished work. It was freeing and relaxing.”

- Sarah P., Adult Student
