Armory Center for the Arts

Nonprofit and community-based, Armory Center for the Arts is the region's leader for community arts education.

Armory Kid's Classes introduce materials and ideas that strengthen skills, promote problem solving, and encourage creative exploration.

Teen Classes engage in ambitious investigations of contemporary art concepts, materials, techniques, and individual expression. Develop new skills or discover hidden talents in our day and evening Adult Classes. Lifelong learners and all skill levels welcomed.

How to Register

- Register at armoryarts.org/studio and receive priority seating.
- Registration starts 10:00 AM Wednesday, March 18. Early registration recommended. Read all class descriptions and Armory class policies at armoryarts.org/studio.

Discounts

- Add a membership online during checkout to save 10%. Visit armoryarts.org/membership to learn about all member benefits.
- Members at Family level or higher can register one week earlier through paper registration.
- Seniors 60+ receive 10% off adult tuition. Seniors with Armory memberships receive an additional 10% off. Please contact registrar@armoryarts.org or (626) 792-5101 x121 for your discount code before you register.
- Scholarships are available for all ages. Spots are limited. Learn more at armoryarts.org/scholarships.

Seeking Teen Volunteers

Teens, ages 12-18, can volunteer in our studio kids classes. Email volunteer@armoryarts.org to learn how you can get involved.

New! Armory Summer Studio Extended Care

Students enrolled in afternoon classes can transition to extended care until 6 PM, where they can make art, play games, and meet new friends! Extended Care runs Monday-Friday, 4-6 PM at $85/week per student. Register online at register.armoryarts.org or in person. We recommend packing snacks for your kids, as snacks are not provided.
