Religious Exemption Request for COVID-19 Vaccination

Armory policy requires all employees and students to submit proof of receipt of a COVID-19 vaccine. Staff and students may request an exemption if they cannot receive the vaccine because of a sincerely held religious belief, practice, or observance. To qualify for a religious exemption please describe below your religious belief, practice, or observance, and how these prevent you from receiving COVID-19 vaccination.

The undersigned understands this Religious Exemption Request and has had the opportunity to ask questions about it. By signing this Religious Exemption Request, the individual, and, if a minor, their parent, or legal guardian, attests that they cannot receive a COVID-19 vaccination because of the sincerely held religious belief, practice, or observance described above. Individual and, if a minor, their parent, or legal guardian, acknowledges that an unvaccinated individual is at greater risk of becoming ill with COVID-19. The undersigned understands this Religious Exemption Request and has had the opportunity to ask questions about it.

The undersigned verifies the truth and accuracy of the statements in this Religious Exemption Request.
